

A talk by Dr Alison Sheridan

Long before Brexit

Reflections on cross-Channel connections between the fifth and the second millennia BC

2ND
ANNUAL

Pitt Rivers Lecture

7 pm

Tue 30 October
Displays from 6:30 pm
Fusion Building

This talk is open to the public and is free to attend. To register, visit pittriverslecture2018.eventbrite.co.uk

Dr Alison Sheridan is Principal Archaeological Research Curator in the Department of Scottish History and Archaeology, National Museums Scotland. She specialises in the Neolithic, Chalcolithic and Bronze Age archaeology of Britain and Ireland, and its international connections, and will be discussing these in her lecture.

Presented by the Centre for Archaeology & Anthropology