

Humanisation SIG conference

PROGRAMME

Room EB306, Executive Business Centre, 89 Holdenhurst Road, BH8 8EB

23rd June 2015

9.00-9.20		Registration
9.20 -9.30	Caroline Ellis-Hill	Welcome
9.30-9.45	Desi Tait	Humanisation of the nursing curriculum from philosophy to practice
9.45-10.00	Carol Clark and Clare Farrance	Engaging in physical activity: A humanising perspective
10.00-10.15	Peter Wolfensberger	Humanisation and reflective, constructivist Grounded Theory – Insights from an on-going research project with people living with mental illness – a researcher’s perspective
10.15-10.30	Vanessa Heaslip and Anne Mills	Service User/Carer engagement within Values Based Recruitment. An undergraduate adult nursing perspective
10.30 -10.45	Sally Lee	Can personalisation in social care be humanising?
10.45-11.00	Jan Mosja	From room 11 to infinity. A case study of 85 year old Leo with reflections on care
11.00-11.30		Coffee
11.30-11.45	Maggie Hutchings and Anne Quinney	Developing new pedagogies for lifeworld-led humanising care
11.45- 12.00	John Tarrant	The phenomenology of caring for people in perioperative practice
12.00-12.15	Carole Pound	Exploring the human dimensions of stroke care : sharing understandings of older people and stroke care
12.15-12.30	Jen Leamon	I am here: a poem about a mother, midwife and baby and its reflective development.
12.30- 12.45	Sue Baron, Angela Warren and Andrea Addis	Placing the person at the centre of care: learning from simulation
12.45-1pm	Mary Grant and Catherine Lamont- Robinson	HeART of stroke: working with an Arts for Health approach to maintain/improve wellbeing following a stroke
1pm		End